I searched my email and have no responsive records. I have not received any hard copy materials relating to the spill, either.

Thanks,
Everett

Brenda,

I don't have any responsive documents that I'm aware of (for example, I searched in my email file where I keep emails concerning spills, and couldn't find anything, and likewise in another email folder containing emails related to Ft. Berthold generally).

Additionally – Everett is out until Monday. Can you wait until he returns for his documents, or seek an extension from the requester?
